

CO-DESIGNING THE FRAME OF A FOOD EDUCATION PROGRAMM FOR SWISS PRIMARY SCHOOL

PROJECT UMAMI OBJECTIVE

Inter & transdisciplinary development of a Healthy and Sustainable Food curriculum for the Swiss primary school

WORKSHOP OBJECTIVES

"Which concepts/themes of the food system should children learn at school to be able to make healthy and sustainable food choice in their eater life "

1

Agree on concepts/themes of the food system should be included in the healthy and sustainable food curriculum

#2

Agree on food products that needs to be promoted to children and will serve as support material in the classes to teach the selected themes

TUE. 31.01.2023

From 8.30 to 12:30, BFH-HAFL

08:30: Welcoming

09:00 : Input - Umami Core Team

09:30 : Working on objective #1

Break

11:00 Input 2 - Umami Core Team

11:30 Working on objective #2

12:30 Lunch (Mensa booked)

PARTICIPANTS

Around 15 BFH-Intern collaborators working along the value chain on different disciplines to bring various perspectives (production, transformation, health, sociology, Environnement, consumption etc.)

BFH-G, AGRI, FSM, SÜD

MODERATION

Charlotte Bourcet
& Patrick Bürgisser

Contact-us if needed !

NEXT STEPS

Transdisciplinary Workshop with stakeholders, teachers, didacticiens and agri-food expert in March to define the learning objectives and start conceptualizing the lessons.

Looking forward to co-design with you !